

MANAGE A PROFESSIONAL TEAM: INTERPERSONAL SKILLS

with Dr Trinidad Hunt

Thursday, 18 August 2011

People come from different backgrounds and perspectives. Learning how to work with and motivate these distinct personalities is one of the skills of a good team leader.

In this inspiring and unique seminar, Dr Trinidad Hunt uses an advanced research-based inventory for increasing your communication skills and enhancing your productivity with different kinds of people.

Participants will do a personality inventory and receive a take-home resource guide for enhanced reflective study.

This seminar is for all levels of leadership: principals, deputy principals, positions of leadership, co-ordinators and human relations staff.

Information and bookings

When	9:30am - 4:00pm, Wednesday 17 August
Where	FEU Conference Centre, 120 Clarendon St, Southbank
Cost	$125 for IEU members $225 for non-members
Bookings	Email us on training@ieuvictas.org.au or call (03) 9254 1860, quoting code LS111

For more training and professional development opportunities visit www.ieuvictas.org.au

